

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BEFORE THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In the Matter of:

CECIL RAY MILLS) COMPLAINANT)
v.)	CASE NO. 2005-00361
MARTIN COUNTY WATER DISTRICT) DEFENDANT)

O R D E R

Cecil Ray Mills filed a formal complaint with the Commission against Martin County Water District (“Martin District”) alleging that the water pressure to his home was inadequate and did not meet the pressure requirements of Administrative Regulation 807 KAR 5:066.

Martin District has advised the Commission that the water line to Mr. Mills’ home was re-routed and that Mr. Mills’ water pressure problems were resolved. Pursuant to 807 KAR 5:001, Section 12(5), after an offer of satisfaction by a defendant and a complainant’s acceptance of the offer, no further proceedings are necessary.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

1. Within 10 days of the date of this Order, Complainant shall file with the Commission notice of Martin District’s satisfaction, or lack of satisfaction, of the complaint.
2. If no such filing is received, the complaint shall be considered satisfied, and this case shall be closed.

Done at Frankfort, Kentucky, this 3rd day of April, 2006.

By the Commission
